ONE SMALL DINNER.

SO MANY POSSIBILITIES.

As an innovative dating service that introduces like-minded singles at hosted small group dinners throughout a city's top-rated restaurants, DinnerDate is cooking up something new by shifting focus from the laptop to the tabletop!!

••• I dated a profile. Now I'd like to try a person...

How DinnerDate.com works

From the restaurants to the guests, every DinnerDate is distinctive and the possibility of finding Mr. or Ms. Right is always there. The only requirements? A love for good food and a desire to meet interesting people in your city. It's that simple!

1

Create a free profile.

It's free and easy to sign up. Rather than pay a monthly subscription fee, DinnerDate.com members (also known as DinnerDaters™) pay just a $5 booking fee for each date they decide to attend in addition to prepaying for the meal online. This way, everything's taken care of in advance, including the menu, so each person is free to enjoy the evening! Once a profile is complete, each member is notified when events that fit their specified interests are available.

Find a DinnerDate event in your city.

Search for a restaurant you've been wanting to try or a member you'd like to meet over dinner. You can invite fellow DinnerDaters to events and everyone has the option to accept or decline.

Show up as your best self!

DinnerDate removes the stress of one-on-one dating by bringing a group of like-minded singles together. There's a host at each event who helps ensure sparkling conversations, and all you have to do is show up with a healthy appetite for food and fun and be yourself.

4

Keep on connecting.

After your DinnerDate, you can keep in touch with the folks you meet either through DinnerDate.com or, as in the "good ol' days," swap info right then and there!

More Flavorful Highlights

REAL PEOPLE. DinnerDate brings local singles together to connect for the first time in person, rather than over emails or via “winks” like first generation online dating sites.

GREAT FOOD. Meeting, greeting and eating means that you can explore the best cuisine a city has to offer with great company.

FUN, RELAXED GROUP ENVIRONMENT. Through small group-based events, DinnerDate takes the pressure off dating so you can simply have fun! You don’t have to worry about being stuck on a painfully boring or uncomfortable one-on-one date, and you’re not committed to any one person while you’re there. Finish dessert and say goodnight or stay a bit longer and see where the night takes you.

FRIENDS ARE WELCOME. If you’re still unsure about going by yourself, invite your friends to sign up and book a seat at your DinnerDate table with you.

A HOST HELPS. A pre-selected DinnerDater will serve as host to keep conversations flowing throughout the evening and ensure that everyone gets a chance to meet one another. Just enjoy your meal and let the host help you break the ice — maybe even into a cocktail.

EVERYBODY GOES DUTCH. DinnerDaters prepay for their meal so there’s no need to feel compelled to pay for someone else. Easy on the wallet, easy on the ego.

Party of six guarantee. DinnerDate guarantees a minimum of six people on your date to increase your chances of meeting someone you click with.

No risk cancellation policy. Members can cancel up to 24 hours prior to the DinnerDate for a full refund.

About Us

DinnerDate is the brainchild of Robert Earl, Founder and CEO of Planet Hollywood, and Grant Hosford, a former executive of eHarmony®. It has been successfully pilot tested in Orlando and is officially launching in San Diego. DinnerDate has big plans to move into many major metropolitan cities across the United States.
